Future [ edit ]

Potential sequel [ edit ]

In an interview on August 8, 2021 for his then-upcoming film Free Guy, Levy expressed interest in a Real Steel sequel reuniting both Jackman and Free Guy-star Ryan Reynolds, the latter of whom was introduced to Levy by Jackman.<sup>[54]</sup>

In another interview on April 13, 2024 for Deadpool & Wolverine which stars both Reynolds and Jackman in their respective roles, Levy noted that he and Jackman still talk about a potential sequel at times, and he himself felt encouraged to do so thanks to the positive fan reception over the first film.<sup>[55]</sup>

Television series [ edit ]

On January 14, 2022, it was reported that a series is in early development for Disney+.<sup>[56]</sup><sup>[57]</sup> Unfortunately the series has never been touted as the long-awaited series that fans have been expecting. As far as we know, Hugh Jackman might not even be a part of the Disney+ series, but he’s undoubtedly a fundamental part of the franchise. However, the series is still in development for Amazon Prime Video instead.<sup>[58]</sup>
